Hi, all:

I'm off today so I'm cancelling this afternoon's meeting. Sorry for the late notice.

Meanwhile a lot of progress has been made on the design:

1. We submitted revised plans, calculations, and other forms to LACFCD for review last week. The review fee has already been paid (thanks Christina) and LACFCD has indicated a response date of 10/10/2024.
2. We have been working meticulously on finalizing the 100% documents for all three sites and are completing final coordination between the individual design disciplines. We're shooting to have those docs to you by the end of next week (if not sooner) for review and peer review.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks!
Courtney
